

O'BRIEN WILL NOT RESIGN.

Assistant Immigration Commissioner Fighting for His Place.

New in Washington Working a Senatorial Pull.

Gen. James R. O'Brien, Assistant Commissioner of Immigration, whose resignation was asked for last Monday by Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle, refuses to resign. The General is going to try and hold on to his position whether he is wanted or not.

When he received an intimation that his resignation would be acceptable he told some of his friends that he did not intend to resign, but would exert all his power and the influence of his friends to hold on to the $4,500 position.

Wednesday afternoon he received a telegram from a friend in Washington saying that a certain Senator was then in town, and telling him to go on immediately to the Treasury Department, and that the Senator was working hard for his place. He was allowed to hold his position, however, until Dr. Senner should become thoroughly familiar with immigration matters.

The pressure for the place has again become strong, and so Secretary Carlisle called on O'Brien to step out. It is said that Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, wants this place for a friend of his, Mr. Lane, and that he is likely to get it.

Ellis Island people say O'Brien will not resign. Secretary Carlisle will have to remove him if he wants the place. They are watching the outcome of the fight with much interest.

Capt. C. H. Gallagher, the former Acting Chief of the Contract Labor Bureau at Ellis Island, has been given his resignation, and leaves the Immigration Department to-day. He has been in the Department for three years, and was considered one of the most efficient men in the bureau.

He belongs in Wilmington, Del., and was appointed at the instance of Senator Higgins.

STAMPED THE COOKS.

Spero's Walling Wall Created a Panic in Libbey's Chop-House.

Women were busily engaged this morning in repairing a break in the rear wall of G. Spero's clothing establishment, 141 Fulton street, Brooklyn, which was caused about 8 o'clock last night as the result of the continued pressure from a 1,000-gallon water tank built on the roof a few weeks ago.

The building, which is owned by the Lottard estate, is an old one, and previous to 1870 was known as Belmont's Hotel.

All of Spero's employees had gone home last night, but the water tank had sprung a leak, and the water had poured into the shop. As it was several feet deep, the water had forced its way through the rear of the chop-house, next door, and created a stampede among the cooks and dishwashers.

MARY SAYS THEY'RE ENVOUS.

Accused of Stealing Because She Got Work and the Sisters Did Not.

When Clara O'Brien, of 121 Ely street, Williamsburg, was accused of larceny in the Lee Avenue Court this morning, she made a novel defense. Mary Slatery, of 123 Harrison avenue, alleged that Clara stole a gingham dress belonging to her, and pawned it.

The facts in the case are these: said the defendant. "My sister and I were myself came from Waterbury, Conn., about May 1 to get work. We were idle some time, and then I consented to pawn various articles of clothing."

"I have work now, but the Slaterys have not, and because they will not give them my earnings they have brought this charge out of spite."

Justice Greeting continued the case for examination.

SHOT FOR HUSBAND'S OFFENSE.

Mrs. Jessie Hale Killed as the Result of a Feud in Texas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 30.—Mrs. Jessie Hale was shot and killed in Texas, last night. Mrs. Hale's husband and a man named H. E. Lee had a fight during the day, in which Lee was wounded.

Lee and his son appeared at the Hale residence in the evening and opened fire upon Mr. and Mrs. Hale, who were sitting on the porch. Mrs. Hale was shot through the heart. The Lees are in jail.

LONG-DISTANCE CYCLE RACE.

Borse, of Dresden, Leading the Other Riders Toward Berlin.

VIENNA, June 30.—Interest in the long-distance bicycle race from Florinfort, four miles from this city, to Berlin, continues to increase. The Austrian favorite, Herr Solotko, on whom considerable money was wagered, is practically out of the race. His machine broke down at Stockerau last night.

Herr Lehr, the German rider, who is backed heavily to win by his countrymen, was the twenty-fourth contestant to arrive at Berlin, in Moravia. He was delayed for two hours near Kallin by a furious rainstorm.

Sorge, of Dresden, was leading all the riders last night. He arrived at Jank-Buntzlau, in Bohemia, at 8 1/2 o'clock last evening, having covered 182 miles in fourteen hours and nineteen minutes. He was in good condition.

RACE BETWEEN MILCH COWS.

Animals to Be Driven from Tyler, Tex., to the World's Fair.

GALVESTON, Tex., June 30.—A milk cow race will start from the town of Tyler, in Eastern Texas, the home of Gov. Hogg, for the World's Fair.

Clyde Seeborg offers a purse of $5,000 for the winner and $1,000 for second place. All herds will be allowed to enter provided they are four years old or over. Applications will be received until July 1.

Each person entering a cow for the race will be furnished a two-wheeled gig, set of cow harness, and a pair of 100 pounds of coffee and cooking utensils with which to prepare his food. Drivers will be allowed to consume all the milk and butter they desire for their own personal wants en route.

The cows are to be driven twelve hours a day, allowing one hour for dinner, and churning is to be permitted while traveling or at a stop. The cow arriving at the World's Fair first with not less than fifty pounds of butter to her credit, made en route, will receive first money.

The cow having the largest amount of butter to her credit, and arriving within one week or less of the winner, will receive second money. So far six entries have been made, and the start will be made from the Tyler public square at 7 A. M. July 25.

OFF ON HIS LONG TRAMP.

Lockwood Starts for Frisco, Cheered by a Crowd.

Stimulated by the enthusiastic cheers of a large crowd gathered at the front of the Pulitzer Building this morning, young Edward C. Lockwood started promptly at 9 o'clock for his long walk to San Francisco. He was clad in a blue jersey, blue plaid trousers, a short-sleeved jacket, and stout russet shoes.

A long-jacketed jockey cap rested jauntily on his well-shaped head. Over his shoulder was slung a change of attire, which Lockwood believes he will need to make before he reaches his destination.

He started away confidently and walked up Park street, and then to the corner of Third and Duane streets. His hand was warmly shaken by dozens of well-wishers, and as he passed the Bridge entrance, a rousing cheer put the venturesome young pedestrian in an exuberant mood, and he quickened his pace materially.

He will rest at Yorkers to-night, and at Albany he will be joined by a friend and George Cramer, and the pair will make the tour together.

They think they will do the trip in 192 days.

POOL-WAR IN COVINGTON.

Old Men Try to Prevent New Comers from Getting the Returns.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—The pool-war in Covington took a serious turn yesterday afternoon. Fearful of serious results, Chief Goodson, of the Covington police, stationed officers at Sharp's pool-room and the Kentucky Turf Exchange.

The trouble came from the efforts of the pool-room combine, composed of Sharp, Payne and the Kentucky Turf Exchange, to prevent Tapp & Co., the new men, from getting a foothold. The new men tried to get a wire, cut the old and entries from the other rooms by messenger boys.

Fearing trouble, Chief Goodson stationed his men at the three old pool-rooms. It is intimated that the circumstances are such in Covington that the new men will come out ahead.

JOCKEY EDDIE CARR KILLED.

Brooklyn Boy Thrown Off His Horse and Fatally Injured.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 30.—The sport at the Fair Grounds was marred yesterday by a fatal accident that occurred in the fifth race. Eddie Carr had the mount on Tougalua, and as the horses were coming down the stretch his stirrup-pole broke, and, being unable to retain the equilibrium thus lost, he fell to the ground.

Reacher, the horse, directly behind him, struck him with both front feet. The blow fractured the skull and caused a fatal injury. Carr died last night. He was a well-known jockey and horse owner on both Eastern and Western tracks. His home was in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Stabbed in a Fight.

Frank Macello, forty-one years old, of 308 East Forty-seventh street, taken to Bellevue Hospital early this morning, suffering from a severe knife-wound on his forehead, the result of a fight with John Corcoran last night at the above address.

FOR THE RICH REALIZATION.

The Derby Winner and St. Leonards the Favorites.

Turfmen Expect to See a Grand Race To-Morrow.

The rich Realization Stakes, worth nearly $50,000 to the winner, will be run at Sheepshead Bay to-morrow. The distance is one mile and five furlongs, and the best horse will win.

The race will undoubtedly bring out a great crowd of visitors, and, while the field of horses will not be large, the race may prove every bit as interesting and sensational as the $50,000 American Derby run at Chicago last Saturday over the Washington Park track.

The race is exclusively for three-year-olds. These horses were entered as foals in 1900 and as yearlings in 1901, and out of 137 entries not more than half a dozen of the cracks will line up at the post.

The probable starters are M. F. Dwyer's bay colt Don Alonso, by Long Taw, dam Round Dance; J. R. and F. P. Keene's chestnut colt St. Leonards, by Imp. St. Blaise, dam Belladonna; J. E. Cushing's brown colt Boundless, by Harry O'Fallon, dam Endless; Brown & Rogers's bay colt by Troubadour, dam Sunbeam; Gideon & Daly's chestnut colt Ramapo, by Pontiac, dam Annie P.; Oneck Stable's bay colt, by Middleton, dam La Scala; J. Ruppert's chestnut colt St. Domingo, by Imp. St. Blaise, dam Lady Primrose, and possibly the Empire Stable's chestnut colt Comanche, by Sir Modred, dam Ethel.

The cows are to be driven twelve hours a day, allowing one hour for dinner, and churning is to be permitted while traveling or at a stop. The cow arriving at the World's Fair first with not less than fifty pounds of butter to her credit, made en route, will receive first money.

The cow having the largest amount of butter to her credit, and arriving within one week or less of the winner, will receive second money. So far six entries have been made, and the start will be made from the Tyler public square at 7 A. M. July 25.

PISTOL SHOT STOPPED THEM.

Four Highwaymen Attack and Rob an Old Newsdealer.

Thomas West, twenty-three years old, of 31 East Fourteenth street; John Leonard, twenty-two, of 46 East Ninth street; William Fitzgibbon, twenty-seven, of 40 East Sixtieth, and Thomas Pender, twenty-six, of 46 East Sixteenth street, all drivers in the Street-Cleaning Department, were held for trial in the Yorkville Court this morning charged with highway robbery.

The four men, a newspaper editor, three years old, of 502 East Fifteenth street, and a woman, were standing at the corner of Fifteenth street and Avenue A at 5 o'clock this morning, when the four men attacked him and stole his watch.

Policeman Conroy, of the West Twenty-second street station, who was on duty at the time, saw the four men, who came to a halt when a shot from the policeman's revolver whistled over their heads.

CHOPPED OF MOTHER'S HEAD.

Terrible Crime of an Imbecile Youth at Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, June 30.—In Reynolds town, a suburb of Atlanta, late last evening Tom Fagan, an imbecile youth, eleven years of age, killed his mother by cutting her head off with an axe, and then split her head open and otherwise mutilated the body.

Mrs. Fagan had been ill and was confined to her bed. While nobody was home, Tom entered her room and, with a hatchet, cut off her head with an axe, and then split her head open and otherwise mutilated the body.

KNIFE WAS TRUMP.

Ganio's Head Slashed in a Quarrel Over a Card Game.

Joe Murphy, forty-two years old, of 166 Third avenue, was held for trial in the Harlem Police Court this morning charged with felonious assault upon Paul Ganio, of 41 East Thirteenth street.

The two men were playing euchre in the basement of Murphy's house when Ganio, across the board, and in a perfect frenzy, he did not seem to realize the enormity of his deed.

HELD FOR BURGLARY.

John Walsh Denies All Knowledge of the Stolen Tools.

In the Harlem Police Court this morning John Walsh, aged thirty, of 272 West Fourteenth street, was held in $2,000 bail on a charge of burglary.

On June 21 the blacksmith shop of Robert Landeck, at 270 Eighth avenue, was broken into and a box of tools, valued at $100, was stolen.

Policeman Mulcahy, of the Thirty-second Precinct, located the tools in a saloon in Grand Central station, and was informed that they were in the hands of Walsh.

Walsh denied all knowledge of the tools.

JOHN HARVEY, THE CROOK, DEAD.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 30.—Three strange men arrived here on the Michigan Central train the other night. One of them was very ill and apparently suffering great pain. They went to a small and rather obscure hotel, and after putting the sick man to bed, his companions hunted up a doctor and soon after left.

The sick man is now dead. He was John Harvey, alias Arling, one of the most noted expert confidence men and all-around crooks in the country.

Soon after the man's arrival, his companions showed big rolls of bills and said they would pay for any attendance. The hotel keeper says that Harvey had a roll as big as that of his companions, but it has gone with the men and he died without a cent.

TROUBLE AT CITY ISLAND.

Mrs. Delancy's Claim May Close Ship-Yards and Boarding-Houses.

CITY ISLAND, N. Y., June 30.—The decision of the Court of Appeals deciding that Mrs. Delancy is the rightful owner of all the land under water which surrounds City Island from Joseph Horton's dock on the west shore to the end of Fordham avenue on the east shore, may compel Piegarn, the extensive ship builder at City Island, to close up his yards.

He employs several hundred workmen, and has several large contracts to build vessels now on hand.

Several tradesmen and boarding-house keepers on the island may also be compelled to close their places, and move elsewhere.

Mrs. Delancy claims ownership to the land under a Queen Anne grant given to her grandfather, John Delancy, in 1792. John Hunter, who is the legal representative of Mrs. Delancy, proposes to enforce her rights unless some legal settlement is effected.

Sheriff Duffy, of Westchester County, has detailed one of his deputies for duty at City Island, pending the settlement of the dispute.

ASLEEP IN AN ASH-BARREL.

John and Willie Marrell's Cousin Moved and They Became Lost.

John and Willie Marrell, whose father, Frank Marrell, a barber, lives at 341 East Ninety-second street, were turned over to the Gerry Society in Jefferson Market Court to-day for examination.

Policeman Blumenthal found them both asleep in an ash-barrel at Second street and First avenue at midnight last night. They told Matron Travers at Headquarters that they started to visit a cousin, who lived near Second street and First avenue, but he had moved.

SHE LEAPED TO ESCAPE.

Mrs. Robinson's Ankle Broken in Fleeting from Her Husband.

At an early hour this morning John Robinson, of 266 Newark street, Hoboken, went home in an ugly mood and began beating his wife in the most brutal manner.

The woman, fearing for her life, sprang through an upper window to the ground, a distance of twenty feet.

Mrs. Robinson had an ankle sprained and was otherwise seriously injured. Robinson, becoming alarmed, fled the city.

RAILROADS AND RAILROAD MEN.

News and Gossip of Interest in Transportation Circles.

James A. Moore, a well-known railroad man and general manager of the Commercial Dispatch, died suddenly in Buffalo last Tuesday.

Three Eastern passenger agents on Broadway have gone into stock-rating business.

It is reported that the Norfolk and Western has been doing such a heavy Chicago business over its new line that a certain trunk line has made a formal complaint.

A party of Chesapeake and Ohio officials are in town to "see off" Vice-President in a special train for the benefit of those of their employees who desire to visit the World's Fair.

The work of four-tracking the New Haven will involve an outlay of $12,140.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul has acquired the Milwaukee and Northern road and will operate it as its Lake Superior division.

MANAGER J. STEERS HELD.

Will Be Examined Next Monday on a Charge of Larceny.

Attorney O'Reilly Says There Are a Number of Victims.

Alfonso J. Steers, of 74 Madison avenue, who was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with the larceny of $100, was held in $1,000 bail in Tombs Court this morning for examination July 3. He is the general manager of the Brotherhood Mutual Benefit Association, with offices in the Bennett Building in Nassau street.

Alfonso J. Steers.

The complainant is William Haff, a German, who has been in this country only a few months. He became a collector for the company by depositing $100 cash, and after he had worked three weeks and had been paid $27.50, he was discharged. He then demanded the $100, but was refused. He then secured a check on the Twelfth Ward Bank, but was told at the bank that the check was no good. He then secured the arrest of Alfonso J. Steers, general manager.

The company, in addition to its office at 38 Nassau street, has branch offices in Grand street and at 249 South Grand street. The publishers are A. J. Steers, Charles J. Lord, Secretary; Daniel M. Steers, Treasurer; and F. H. Birmingham, Medical Director.

The company's offer is that any sound person between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five, who pays $1 initiation fee and 25 cents a week dues, after thirteen weeks membership, can draw $10 for the payment of $5 down and $15 a week for the next forty years.

The company was organized last October in New Jersey. In June it was incorporated under the law governing "social and recreative societies" in the State. The officers are especially to poor families, and it is the money of the poor that has fallen into their hands.

An investigation by "The World" proved that the men financially interested in the concern are A. J. Steers and Julian Landau. Mr. Steers admitted to a reporter that the Brotherhood "is a scheme to pay benefits, and that until yesterday collectors have been steadily taking in money. He said the Brotherhood Supply Company was backing the institution, but it was learned that the latter organization is run by the same men who are conducting the "Brotherhood."

Secretary Lord admitted that the $100 deposit of several collectors is still retained, but he said that in every instance it would be returned as soon as the men were entitled to it.

Lawyer Daniel O'Reilly appeared in the Tombs Court this morning in behalf of the company, and he said there is a number of victims who will testify to being treated in a similar manner.

TWO MEN HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Accused of Being Responsible for Lena Staape's Condition.

She is Dying From the Result of a Criminal Operation.

Frederick Hellwinkle, a bartender, of 351 Eighth avenue, and William Krembs, a drug clerk, of 46 West Sixty-fourth street, were held without bail in the Yorkville Police Court this morning, charged with being responsible for the condition of Lena Staape, a German Hospital in a dying condition, the result of a criminal operation.

She is thirty years old, and was employed as a domestic by a family on Lexington avenue, whose name she refuses to disclose.

She applied to the hospital for treatment Wednesday, and yesterday her condition became so serious that the hospital authorities notified the East Sixty-seventh street police, and detectives were sent to question her.

At first she refused to say anything, but after repeated questioning she finally named Hellwinkle as the cause of her trouble and Krembs as the one who performed the operation.

TALK WITH GEN. HARRISON.

Ex-President Blames the Democrats for Present Troubles.

Spends the Forenoon with His Son Russell at the Hotel.

Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, who is at present at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, remained all morning in his rooms with his son Russell. He will remain in the city until Monday, when he will leave for his Cape May cottage. At Cape May he will remain until September for needed rest, "and to brush up on constitutional law," as he expressed it.

In February next Mr. Harrison is going to lecture on constitutional and international law to the students of Lehigh and Stanford, Jr. University.

Among the ex-President's callers this morning were Collector Francis Hendricks, ex-Collector Joel B. Ehrhardt, Superintendent of the Census H. P. Porter and State Auditor Poe, of Ohio. Mr. Harrison is looking unusually well. He has greatly improved in health since he left the White House.

Speaking of the financial situation, Mr. Harrison said that the unsettled condition of affairs was due to the Democratic party.

"This country is and has been run on a protective basis. The Democratic party has come into power and is pledged to overthrow this system. Conservative business men are uneasy with the present depression in commercial and industrial circles."

"What do you think of the prospects of the Republican party?" "Perhaps they are better than the situation. Does any business man think that the Democratic party is on top in the present state of affairs?"

Mr. Harrison refused to talk about Gov. Alged's pardon of the Anarchists. Neither would he express an opinion on the tariff and his own political future.

HOW THE END WILL COME.

The Earth Will Not Die by Accident, But from Natural Causes.

M. Camille Flammarion says that in all probability, notwithstanding all the circumstances which threaten it, our planet will die, not of an accidental natural death, but of a death which will be the consequence of the extinction of the sun. In twenty million years or more the sun will have exhausted its energy in a relatively moderate rate will give it on one hand seventeen million years of existence, while, on the other hand, the inevitable fall of meteors into the sun may double this number, says L'Aurore.

Even if you suppose the duration of the sun to be prolonged to forty million years, it will not be enough to save the earth. They will be erased
